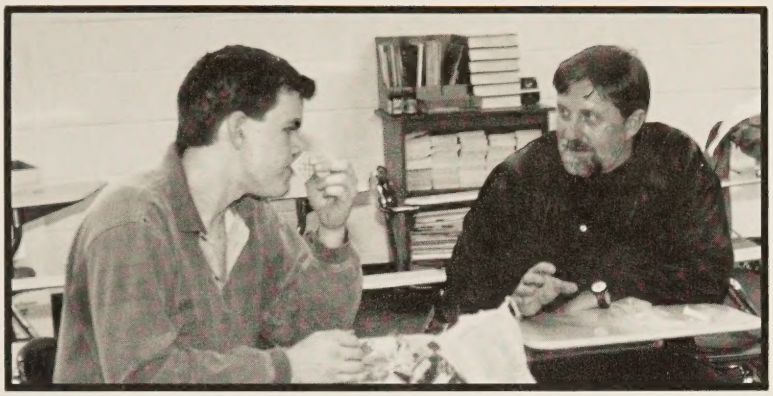
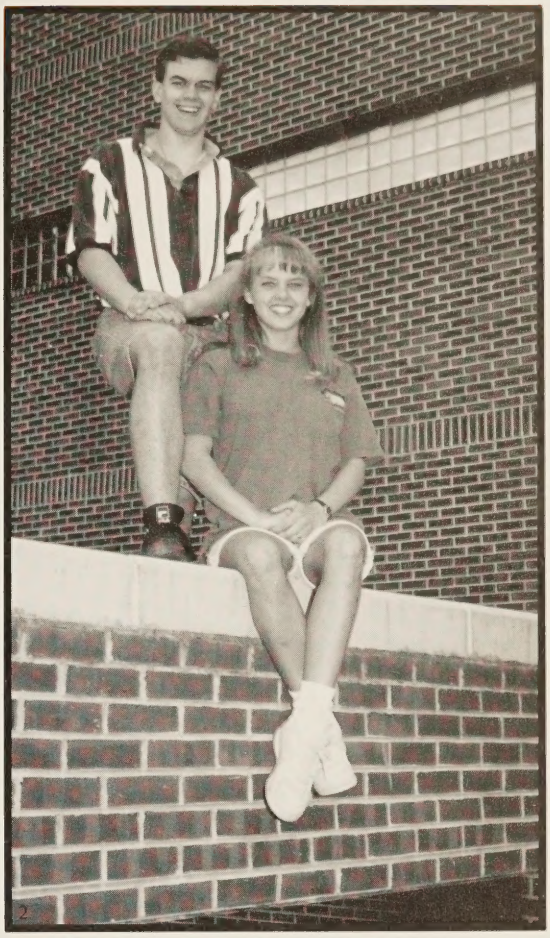
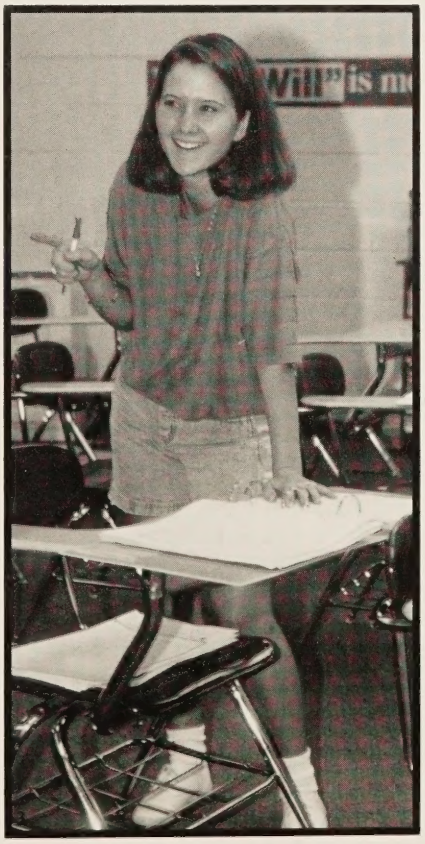
The 1994-95 Honaker High Torch staff has worked diligently to bring you a great collage of memories of the past year. We hope you enjoy owning this book as much as we have enjoyed producing it.

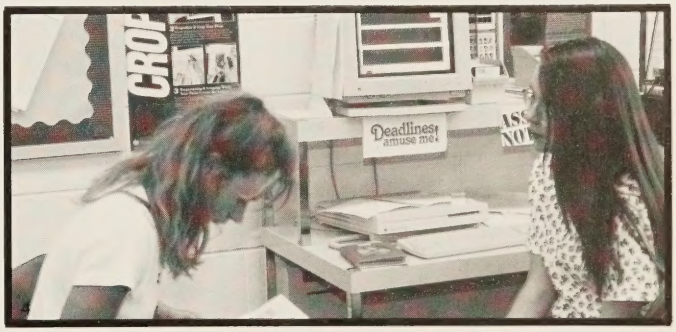
This collection of memories will stay with us forever. We wanted to give you something that would last a lifetime.

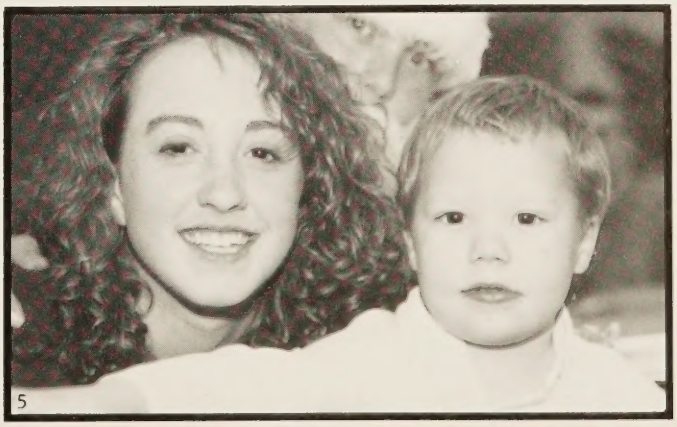


1. The only two men brave enough to be a part of this group and this is how they spend their time.
2. Co-editors — Farrah Patrick, Greg Stinson
3. Kim says, "Oh yeah, I've got it now.
4. Kristy and Veronica working on the underclass section.
5. Jessica volunteering time with Head start.









Joana Brasil (Jojo) is sixteen years old. She has lived in Fortaleza, Brazil, all of her life. Jojo was on the swimming and volleyball team at her school in Brazil. Jojo's favorite hobby is to go to the beach. Her plans are to return to Brazil to become a lawyer.

"I don't know?"

Joana

Paula

Paula Figols is seventeen years old and is from Zaragoza, Spain. Here at Honaker High School Paula participated in girls' basketball, volleyball, and track. Paula likes to read and play sports. She will return to Spain and study to be a journalist.

On May 20, sixty sleepy seniors loaded up on buses at 6 o'clock in the morning. Along with these seniors were Ms. Miller, Ms. Smith, Ms. Ray, and Mr. Z. They all headed to Carowinds for one last day together. The result was a lot of fun and memories.

Jeremy, Angie, Opie, and Greg stuck on the Vortex.

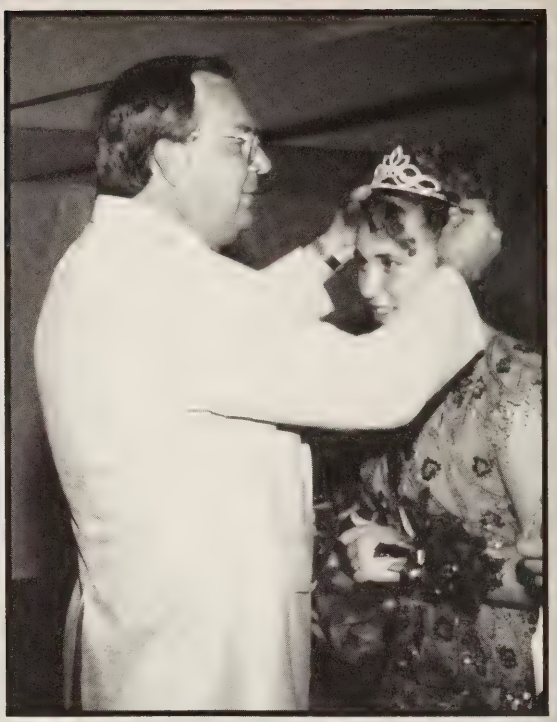
MEMORIES

JR.-SR. PROM MAY 6, 1995



It's here at last this night of nights
Sweet music, dancing, soft dimmed lights.
So laugh and sing and dance away.
Recall, remember our past school days.
We celebrate our high school years
And the time we share,
Our joys, our fears, our fervent hopes.
This night together is your last.
Farewell to you, Dear Senior Class

CHEERLEADING

Kneeling L to R: Elizabeth Miller, Jamie Whited, Rebecca Lothery, Lisa Shell, Angie Shortt (Capt.), Jessica Honaker
Standing: Jennifer Newberry (Sponsor)

This year's varsity football cheerleading squad had a very exciting year. At cheerleading camp, the squad won the Camp Champion Sideline Competition enabling them to perform in the pre-game show of the 1995 Citrus Bowl. Angie Shortt was selected as an All-Star Cheerleader and traveled to London, England, to participate in "The London New Year's Day Parade." The squad also won the Fort Chiswell Football Jamboree Cheerleading Competition.

The cheerleaders always have time for a picture.

An outstanding season is all you can say for the 1995 softball team!! This young team won the Black Diamond District title and were Regional Runner-up. The season ended with a loss of 3-4 to a tough competitor Castlewood. Having nine freshmen, four sophomores, three juniors, and only one senior this team should make a strong comeback for at least three years. Below: "Barney" at her best.
